TASTE OF JAPAN

Maki (often referred to as Maki Sushi) is a type of Sushi Roll where Rice and fillings are wrapped in Seaweed (Nori) and then sliced into bite-sized pieces. Rice is on the outside and the fillings are in center.

Uramaki or "Inside-Out Roll," is a specific type of Maki where rice is on the outside and Nori is on the inside, encasing the fillings. This style often includes toppings or garnishing on outside of Rice, making it visually appealing.
